KINSALE
ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Email: Kinsaleparade@gmail.com
Sunday 17th March 2013

Councillor Fred Treacy is inviting the members of your group to join with the community in celebrating St. Patrick's Day on Sunday March 17th. The committee would be delighted if your group or organisation would participate in what promises to be a fun, family event to mark our national holiday and celebrate our community. Enter a float, march in the parade, display your skills... the possibilities are endless!

As last year's parade was such a success the committee have decided to keep the theme: "The Spirit of Kinsale".

Please email: kinsaleparade@gmail.com to let us know if you would like to join the many local community groups who have already committed to taking part.

-Aine Ryan O'Brien & Celine Henderson.

KINSALE GOES PINK !

Many thanks to Sam Kingston, Philip Cunningham, Brendan Geary, Mark O'Reilly, Steph Graef and Barry O'Leary who helped Committee Members put up flags and bunting to help raise awareness for the Kinsale Pink Ribbon Walk on Sunday 3rd March.

Registration still open at Kinsale Pharmacy, Finishing Services or Cronin's or online on www.pinkribbonwalk.ie or contact our 'pink hotline' (086) 2719556

Also, there are plenty of Pink Promotions on our website, including the 'Style Fix' event at The Blue Haven on 21st February, Rogue Fitness competition and complimentary yoga classes.

Thanks to those 'Pink Partners' who have signed up with us already. Any business wishing to sign up can contact Finishing Services for information, 021 4773571.

Padraig & Ger of the Kinsale Peace Project would like to give special thanks to all the people who turned up to the talk last week, given by 2 former paramilitaries from Belfast. A very insightful & very special evening in which we all learned more about growing up in Belfast, we also learned about current conflicts in the world. During the day time, we visited Kinsale Community School where students learned about "living history", thanks to principal Sean O'Broin, a special thanks to prior Fr Frank & fellow friars for the use of the lovely Friary Centre, all church leaders who were in attendance. A special thanks to the White House & especially to the Frawley family for their hospitality.
