KINSALE LIONS GOLF CLASSIC

Farrangalway, home to Kinsale Golf Club, was the idyllic setting for the 2013 Golf Classic run by Kinsale Lions Club recently. Forty teams took part, and there were over one hundred sponsors to help make the event successful in terms of €15,000 charity funds raised, as well as providing a great days golf in excellent conditions.

Lions President Eamon Jackson said how grateful the Lions were to Kinsale Golf Club for providing their award winning course for the Golf Classic. Kinsale Golf President Ned Lambe responded, and promised the ongoing support of the golf club for Kinsale Lions, who they recognised as working for the local community.

Given the good conditions, scoring was high, with Trident Hotel taking the honours on 92 points. Second team was Goodbody Wealth Management, also on 92 points but separated on back nine. The Robinson/Moore team was placed third, on 91 points.

The Annual Golf Classic is a major source of Lions Club funds.

In addition to the Golf Club, Kinsale Lions Club thank all others concerned with the event, especially the local businesses who contribute by sponsoring tee boxes and sponsoring teams. Many local individuals contribute by making up a team to take part.

Throughout the year, local charities and local projects benefit from the Lions' input, whether by direct donation or by the voluntary services of the Lions Members.
