

Town Tours:

For a vivid account of the strategic importance of Kinsale and its extraordinary fortifications, join Don and Barry's Kinsale Historic Stroll, departing at 11.15am daily from the Tourist Office plus May-September 9.15am Monday-Friday, rain or shine! As the pioneering daily walking tour in Kinsale, it has been categorically rated 'Kinsale's single best attraction' in Rick Steves' Ireland Guide and lauded in Promoters for its 'local knowledge second to none'. Dermot Ryan's Kinsale Heritage Town Walks, rated as the Top Attraction by TripAdvisor, 'Best Guide in Ireland on Irish Independent' and 'The ideal way to see Kinsale and learn its history' by the Irish Times, uses a unique blend of old photographs and maps to show the heritage of this special town. Daily from the Tourist Office, 10.30am & 3pm (by appointment), lasting an Irish hour, Hall, Rain or Snow! Adults, €5, Children free, special group rates, www.kinsaleheritage.com

For an alternative walk around the town check out the Kinsale Ghost Tours, Sundays to Fridays throughout the summer at 9pm from the Tap Tavern Bar, Brian, your tour guide, will charm and delight you with his stories and knowledge about the French Prison, The Curse of St. Mulrose, Body Snatchers, Smugglers Haven, The Battle of Kinsale 1601 and the legend of The White Lady. If you are lucky, you might meet some locals like good old Seánó Barry along the way. For more information call 087 9480910.

For detailed walking routes, see back cover of this map.

Peter Barry

who sadly died in 2006, not long after he presided at the unveiling of the tribute statue of himself at Market Square, will long be remembered as the driving force behind tourism in Kinsale for many years. A great friend and inspiration to everybody who worked in tourism.

Many thanks Peter...
