Sheila Ryan

Hollybank, Winters Hill

Died 25th March 2023

Dermot, Paul, Eithne, Mary Ann, Andrew, Deirdre, Tadg, Katy, Conor and Heather wish to thank all those who have sympathised with them in person, by phone and letter as well as online on the death of their beloved Sheila.

She was a fantastic person who took great care of her family. She was also involved in many projects in Kinsale, such as establishing the Community Playschool and the Brownies. She was a member of the Flower Club, the Bridge Club, Twinning, Daffodil Day and the Chernobyl Project. She was a great traveller, always ready to explore... few people made it to the Great Wall in a wheelchair! She was a wonderful person, and the tributes to Sheila speak of her kindness and consideration for others as well as her concern for those who needed help.

We would like to thank Yvonne McCarthy and her staff at the Haven Bay Care Centre for their care of Sheila as well as the Thursday ladies, who were such good friends to her.

We also remember the kindness and consideration of the Rev Peter Rutherford and Rev Stan Hessian during her final illness. The staff of Gabriel O'Donovan were outstanding in arranging her wake and in making the ceremony at the Island Crematorium a special event at a very difficult time.
