#rebootinghospitality

As specialist hospitality consultants, we provide impartial expert advice on hotel, tourism and leisure projects at every stage of the lifecycle. We are advising clients for 23 years helping to start, grow, build, and helping to navigate the cycles of business.

Hospitality assets - such as hotels and resorts - are a complex real estate category. Hotel asset performance is susceptible to market fluctuations, location issues, management sophistication and high capital investment. As a result hospitality assets require a special market understanding and product expertise to guide investors, lenders and owners through the complex nature of asset acquisition, management and disposal transactions.

Our experienced team serving the hotel, tourism and leisure sector comprises experienced accountants and hospitality consultants, with practical industry expertise. Our mix of strategic and functional skills and knowledge allows us to provide both innovative and workable business solutions advisors to some leading brands in the sector. We have extensive, in-depth knowledge and understanding of the industry. We can provide the complete hospitality package to outsource your accounts function so that you can concentrate on growing and running your business. Using technology and Cloud based accounting software, we could look after all the compliance, book-keeping, providing accounts, data and KPIs as we successfully do already for a lot of hospitality businesses in the Cork region and enjoy working with SMEs, Entrepreneurs and Start-Ups to help them grow.
