Bernadette Devlin McAliskey

Civil Rights Leader & Former MP

Bernadette Devlin McAliskey (born 1947) is a prominent Irish socialist, republican, and civil rights activist who became the youngest woman ever elected to the British Parliament at age 21 in 1969.

A key figure in the People's Democracy movement during the early "Troubles," she represented Mid Ulster as a "Unity" MP until 1974. Known for her radical activism, she was imprisoned for her role in the 1969 Bogside battle, survived a 1981 loyalist assassination attempt, and later focused on working with migrant communities in Northern Ireland.

Acknowledgement & First Anniversary
Geraldine Meulmeester

27th FEBRUARY 2025

We would like to thank everyone who sympathised with us on the passing of Geraldine Meulmeester (Ger), our adored mother, daughter, Oma and big sister.

To those who attended Mum's removal and funeral, sent food, floral tributes, Mass cards and condolences, we extend our deepest gratitude.

A special thank you to the Emergency Services, Kinsale First Responders and Kinsale Medical Centre who attended Mum's home on that day.

Sincere thanks to Father Innaiah and the musicians who made Mum's Mass so special, and to Gabriel and O'Donovan for their kindness and professionalism.

As it would be impossible to thank everyone individually, please accept this acknowledgement as a token of our heartfelt appreciation.

We can still picture Mum bopping around town, laughing and chatting with everyone she met, then arriving into her shop and on to Abby's kitchen with all the news.

Mum, we miss you every day.
