BRING YOUR OLD DEVICE

The Irish Refugee Council has reported that over 2 million refugees have fled Ukraine as of 14 March. Support is needed to help these individuals find accommodation and employment in Ireland.

LSC are seeking donations of functioning devices (Phones, Laptops, Tablets), with word processing and internet capabilities. Ideally donated devices will include charge cables. Donated devices will be distributed to new arrivals into Ireland, many of whom have left with only essentials in hand. The devices shared will enable refugees to seek out accommodation and work within Ireland, with the support of the Irish Refugee Council.

Devices can be delivered to the LSC offices during working hours throughout April. On the 29th of April from 2-6pm we will host an event on site with our IT Volunteers who will run a clinic to wipe all devices before handing over to the Irish Refugee Council. Further details to be announced.

Kinsale Covid 19 Volunteer Group

A huge thank you to everyone who donated to and helped in any way with the Kinsale Covid 19 Volunteer Group set up at the start of the pandemic in 2020.

Funds raised at the time were used for care packs for the older members of our community, donations to Meals on Wheels and Kinsale Lions Club Christmas Appeal. The remaining funds of €2001 (rounded up to €2100 by Kinsale Lions Club) were held in trust by Kinsale Lions Club at the time but have now been donated to the Friends of Kinsale Day Care Centre to provide items which will enhance the facilities for the clients of this wonderful amenity in Kinsale.

Pictured is Ellie Mai Dyer of Kinsale Covid 19 Volunteer Group presenting the cheque to Bernie Fielding and Rosie Williams of Kinsale Day Care Centre.

TO THE PEOPLE OF KINSALE

I would like to thank everyone in Kinsale for all of the love and support which was shown to my beloved husband, Mark, and me, these past weeks.

The Kinsale Men's Shed went to enormous efforts to help Mark during his recent illness.

Since Mark's passing I have received an unswerving level of kindness, support, and love from everyone.

Kinsale, thank you all, from the bottom of my heart.
