Titus Brandsma, O.Carm.

The Dutch Carmelite who lived for some time in the Friary in Kinsale in 1935 and was killed in 1942 by lethal injection in Dachau Concentration Camp is to be made a Saint by Pope Francis on Sunday, 15th May in Saint Peter's Square, Rome.

Titus was very critical of the National Socialism movement long before Germany invaded the Netherlands in 1940 and was dubbed by the Nazis as "the dangerous little friar". Not only did he sharply criticize Nazi policies in his many newspaper articles and public lectures but also actively opposed Nazi propaganda in the Dutch press and travelled around Holland encouraging the editors of Catholic newspapers not to print Nazi advertisements and articles. He was eventually arrested by the Gestapo at the Carmelite Community in Nijmegen and taken to Dachau, where he was killed six months later, aged 61.

Written accounts from fellow prisoners in Dachau all confirm that Titus remained cheerful in prison despite the gruelling and harsh regime. We are told that he shared his tiny food rations with the hungry and showed special care for Jewish prisoners. This calmness, gentleness and kindness infuriated the guards who beat him mercilessly.

Pope John Paul II beatified Titus on Nov. 3, 1985, as a martyr for the faith. Thirty-six years later on November 25th 2021, Pope Francis recognised the holiness and witness of Titus through a miracle attributed to the Dutch Friar's intercession.

The Canonisation Mass will take place in Rome on the morning of May 15th. Bishop Fintan Gavin will celebrate a special Mass of Thanksgiving in the Friary Church, Kinsale that same afternoon at 3:00pm. All are welcome to attend.

Kinsale Tidy Towns

National Tidy Towns Competition

Starts 1st June 2022 and runs until 1st September 2022.

Now is the time to paint your premises in advance of the summer season!

We would kindly ask everyone to sweep outside their own premises 7 days a week to help keep Kinsale looking its best.

Litter picking will commence on Thursday 19th May at 7pm from Kinsale Tidy Towns steel shed at the Church Square Car Park.

New volunteers are always welcome.

Volunteers can pick up litter any day or night of the week,
bags will be provided by Kinsale Tidy Towns.

Huge thanks to some of our volunteers who pick litter all year round in all weather, what a great bunch they are!

We appeal to dog owners to please please pick up your dog poo.

It's your town so please keep it clean and tidy!

Kinsale Tidy Towns is looking for someone to do some painting of flower tubs, street furniture, etc.

Thanks to all our volunteers.
