Happy 100th Birthday Mrs. Dorney

The Altrusa Club of Kinsale & District would like to wish Violet Dorney, resident at Kinsale Community Hospital, a very Happy 100th Birthday!

Violet was born on 7th October 1925 in Ballymartle, Co. Cork, and moved one mile away to Bawnleigh for her married life with her late husband, Simon. Her family is her pride and joy, son Patrick, grandchildren Sarah, Simon and Pdraig and great grandchildren, Eala and Riadgh. She was extremely close to her late twin sister Kathleen who played a big part in her life. She loves music and dancing and is the ultimate "Dancing Queen".

For the past 7 years Violet has been a resident at Kinsale Community Hospital, where she has been very happy being cared for so well by the Director of Nursing and Staff.

The Birthday Party was organised by Altrusa Club of Kinsale & District with wonderful music from Vincent McCarthy & Friends, and refreshments by the staff of the Hospital.

The County Mayor - Cllr. Mary Linehan Foley presented Violet with a cheque from the President of Ireland, Michael D. Higgins. Also in attendance was Cllr. Marie O'Sullivan.

It was a great celebration of Violet's Special Day.

Sheehy Brothers is proud to be Kinsale's longest-established estate agency, offering a superior service to the local community for almost 50 years.

We're known for our in-depth knowledge of the local property market AND our genuine commitment to clear, consistent communication - keeping clients informed and supported every step of the way. With deep roots in the area and decades of combined experience, we guide vendors and landlords through the process with professionalism, transparency and care. We're all local to Kinsale and, together, we aim to connect with and support clients from all walks of life - whether you're buying, selling or renting.

MEET THE TEAM:

Sinéad Sinnott has called Kinsale home since 2010 and has been a key member of Sheehy Brothers since 2017. She has strong expertise across the sales and rental markets and has managed the office since 2022.

Áine Tierney, from a well-known and respected Kinsale family, joined our administration team earlier this year. She is currently completing her professional qualifications to become a licensed estate agent, while building valuable experience within our busy office.

We are delighted to welcome Patricia O'Regan back to the team following a career break. Born and raised in Kinsale, Patricia brings nearly 30 years of expert local property knowledge and a trusted reputation to the business.

We know property - and we know Kinsale.
