Deeply loved, sadly missed and always remembered by your loving family. Your triplets, Lisa, Mark and Paul, adored granddaughter Irene and great grandchild Sadie-Rose.

Thank you to Irene's partner Rhys for always being there. Thank you Sharon and Hannah for taking such good care of Sadie-Rose during mum's final hours. Thank you to all who attended the removal, funeral and to everyone who sent Mass cards and messages of condolences.

We would like to thank, from the bottom of our hearts, all our family in Kinsale and the UK for making our mum's final destination so memorable.

Thank you aunt Mary xx for being with us.

We would also like to thank our workplaces: The White House and staff, ITW Graphics, and the Kinsale Community School for all of your kindness and support.

To lifelong friends and neighbours. xxx

We extend our sincere thanks to Dr. Helen Barry and CUH, to Haven Bay Care Centre, and Fr. Robert Young. Also the staff of Gabriel and O'Donovan Undertakers for their kindness and great professionalism, and the love and care they gave our mum.

Thank you Robert xxx

Thank you to the management and staff at the Trident Hotel, Kinsale. You have a special place in our hearts and we will never forget it.

As it would be impossible to thank everyone individually, we hope this acknowledgement will be accepted as a token of our sincere thanks and appreciation.

Gratefully yours,

The Lombard Family xxx

Acknowledgement & First Anniversary of Rose's Passing 18th November 2023

"Why do you keep dead roses?" he asked. "I cherish dead roses as they live between the pages of my books. I believe a fresh rose is loved for its beauty but the dead one is beyond beauty. A fresh rose is smelled for its scent. but a dead one for its memories. A fresh rose gives the feel of softness, but a dead one gives the feel of past. A fresh rose lives for days but a dead one - forever." She replied.

An Open Letter

TO THE PEOPLE OF KINSALE

Dear Friends,

As we approach this election season, I urge you to consider the immense value that Kinsale Youth Community Centre brings to our town. This centre, lovingly run by dedicated volunteers and our youth worker Seán, has become a safe and welcoming space for our young people - a place where they can find support, connection, and community.

However, despite its impact, the centre receives no core government funding and relies on the goodwill of our community, philanthropic donations and occasional grants. Without additional support, the future of this cherished resource is at risk. You may know a young person who has been positively touched by this facility.

All donations large and small are more than welcome. Even the smallest contribution can make a difference in helping us keep these doors open. If you can, please consider donating via the Donate button on our website www.kinsaleycc.ie, or call into the centre to speak with Seán or Orlagh.

With heartfelt thanks, Kate French (Volunteer) (on behalf of Kinsale Youth Community Centre)
